Every situation is unique! The best way to know if you qualify is to fill out the pre-application form online.

Income levels are set annually by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to determine eligibility for assistance based on your local geographic area and household size.

Frequently Asked Questions

Does it cost anything to apply?

Our application is free! If you meet the initial qualifications, you will be asked to cover the cost of a credit check ($40 for individual, $65 for co-applicants) that will determine whether you advance to the next stage.

How does sweat equity work?

Sweat equity can take many forms! You can build, volunteer in a Habitat ReStore, assist with administration, attend events, and more. 200 hours are required to complete the program.

How long does the program take?

This varies depending on your situation, but on average it takes about 12 months to complete all program requirements.

Do I need to have children to apply?

No. Habitat serves families of all kinds, including individuals, couples, single parents, couples with children, etc. Anyone can apply!
